

How Can I Be Christ to Others?

God is our Abba. God is our life. God should be at the top of our list. God has helped us in so many ways, giving us life, friends, resources, and many more things. We cannot appreciate how powerful God really is.

I find Christ in my heart, I find Christ in other people, I find Christ in my mind, I find Christ in the church. Jesus' first Great Commandment is Love God with all your heart, mind and soul. He greatly loves and appreciates everyone. He will always forgive you.

I live as a Catholic through God and Jesus. I love God with all my heart, mind and soul. I am baptized, I've received reconciliation, and I've completed my First Communion. I greatly appreciate all three.

Saint Francis de Sales Parish School teaches me how to be like Christ in many different ways. If my mom and dad hadn't decided to move to Lake Geneva, or sent my older brother to St. Francis, I may not have learned as much about my faith as I am now. When I first got to St. Francis in 4K, I immediately felt welcomed. My first day I learned so much about my religion. When I got home, I told my mom how much I had learned, and she was shocked at how much a five year old learned. St. Francis has helped me in so many ways to be more holy with my religion.

I can be like Christ to others, by being kind and loving. I try my hardest to appreciate everyone. My mom always says, "You don't have to be best friends with everyone, but you have to respect them, and be kind to them." Being kind and loving sounds like something really small to say, but imagine if everyone in our world was kind and loving to each other, what would our world be like?
